

Yokahu Kayaks, August 2010

Yokahu Kayaks: Homepage Copy

Puerto Rico is a land of unspoiled beauty, with natural reserves, an unsullied ecosystem, and incredible bio-luminescent lagoons ... all best explored atop a lightweight, superior-grade ocean kayak. With the support of Yokahu, the “good God,” and over ten years of operations in Puerto Rico, Yokahu Kayaks is dedicated to remaining one of the best in the business, with best equipment, people, and overall experience.

Feel secure in our new, extremely stable kayaks, and feel safe with our friendly DNR certified tour guides as they lead you through Puerto Rico’s lush scenery while instructing you in basic safety and proper kayaking. Relax and enjoy snacks and refreshments in the majesty of our wilderness. Make the greener choice by choosing Yokahu for your Puerto Rican adventure, a family-owned company that maintains its commitment to the environment as they continue to clean their tour areas and recycle responsibly.

Endorsed by the Puerto Rico Tourism Company and favored by travelers from all over, isn’t it time you explored Puerto Rico the way the natives did? Make your reservation for Monday through Saturday today!

Raw Material Provided by Client

- Our company has 10 years’ operating, and it’s a local family business.
- We have experienced and friendly tour guides.
- All our equipments are new and updated - lightweight and stable kayaks
- As a commitment to the environment, we clean our areas and recycle
- We open Monday to Saturday and require reservations
- Endorse by the Puerto Rico Tourism Company
- DNR certified tour guides
- Basic, safety and proper kayaking instructions provided
- Discover our eco system; we will give you an understanding chat about our natural reserve.
- Snacks and refreshments